

ST. JAMES' CHURCH

Invitations & Information

April 29, 2018

*Jesus desires that our connection with him and our gifts to others
go deeper than acts of kindness and justice.*

Dear friends,

In the church, we frequently talk about our becoming disciples. I think this is a word that we tend to gloss over because either we assume we know its meaning or we realize that we don't really have any idea at all. In general terms, it means we follow Jesus. But how do we actually live that? Our tendency is to emulate what Jesus does. We gravitate to acts of kindness and justice and all the other things we might do if we make Jesus our example. There is nothing but good in this.

But Jesus desires that our connection with him and our gifts to others go deeper. He wants us to know that the true reality is that he is within us and we in him. He desires that we ever more move into union. This is the spring of mercy that propels our lives as disciples. Jesus tells his followers, "I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me bear much fruit." One of my favorite prayers describes discipleship this way:

And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days.

—Book of Common Prayer, pg. 101

In Christ,
