

Thanks be to God

for all who are caring for the sick during this COVID-19 pandemic.

for the generosity of parishioners who have made financial commitments for 2022, and for all who share in supporting this parish.

Your prayers are requested for St. James' in this season of Advent, that we might live in expectation and hope for the coming of Christ's kingdom as we keep watch for the movements of God in our own day.

for all who are affected by coronavirus, through illness or isolation or anxiety, that they may find relief and recovery.

for doctors, nurses and medical researchers, that through their skill and insights many will be restored to health.

for the United States of America, that we would serve the common good with love and humility, honor the dignity of every human being, and acknowledge and confess the sins of racism, police brutality, and the human temptation to violence that harm our siblings in Christ.

for members and friends of the parish who are sick, sorrowful, or in any kind of trouble:

for the Church of Saint Andrew, Staten Island, according to the Diocesan cycle of prayer.

for Igreja Episcopal Anglicana do Brasil, according to the Anglican Communion cycle of prayer.

for our work as stewards of God's creation, that we may use the earth's resources rightly in the service of others, and be mindful of our connection to all living things. We remember especially those impacted by recent natural disasters across the globe.

for all who are persecuted for their faith, including Christians in the Middle East; for all refugees and all who welcome and serve those in need.

for members and friends of the parish serving in the Armed Forces, in the Diplomatic Corps, and with the U.N.: Tracy, Christian, Mads, Michael, Mark.

We commend to God's never-failing care victims of war and violence throughout the world, including all victims of terrorism; all migrants and refugees who have died fleeing danger; and all those killed in the military service of our nation.

all whom we love but see no more, including Dick Rymer.
